The Chronicle and Directory for 1871.

THIS Work, now in the NINTEL year of its existence, will be publiebed as early as practicable after the close of the current year.

It will be compiled and printed at the Daily Press Office, as usual, from the best and most anthentic sources, and no pains will be spared to make the work complete in all respects. ...

In addition to the naual varied and voluminous information, the value of the "Chronicle and Directory for 1871" will be further augmented by the addition of a Chromo-lithograph plate of the NEW CODE OF SIG-NALS in use at the Peak; also of the various HOUSE FLAGS; a MAP OF HONGKONG; AMAP OF JAPAN; and a CHART OF THE COAST: besides other local information and etatistics corrected to date of publication, tending to make this work the vade mecum for all Public, Mercantile and General Offices.

The Publisher requests that those persons who have not yet returned the printed forms which have been sent to them to fill up, will be good enough to do so withoutdelay. Any persons who have recently arrived, and to whom printed forms have not been sent, are respectfully requested to forward their names and addresses as early as possible for insertion. SUICIDE AMONG NATIVES IN INDIA. The Bombay Samachar has boldly attacked a difficult and painful subject the increase of the crime of suicide amongst natives, which offence also, it may be imagined, is as frequent among the European community here as ut homo. It wishes to know why jurice always rethru a verdict of "temporary insanity," when it is often known that the decented has parefully made preparation for his exit by arranging his root, and both ourable by the same medicine, affairs, and that he adopted suicide is cold blood as the rendiest and most sensible way, of severity of the English criminal law would not na a proventive. Not a dozen rods from where the old man perished the waggon was halted by the roadside. To go further was impossible. To remain seemed like. tempting death; but still there was hope. The children and the old woman were placed under the waggon and an attempt was made to shut out the flames by hanging up sheets and blankets. The horse, which was one the farmer's wife was in the habit of driving, seemed to understand the situation, and stood perfectly still, though the fire burned the hair from his body, and the roaring of the wind and the flames was enough to strike terror in the heart of the boldest. The faithful animal turned his bend now and then, as though to see if the party were safe, but never moved an inch. Had be ran or ever gone a few yards further on, nine lives more would have been added to the death roll." The children escaped with but few slight injuries, from the fact that they were dressed in woollen clothing. They "uttered neither moan nor cry," save that the youngest, a four year- for every form of nervousness.
